1. The solution to the problem of special allowances for [REDACTED] recommended by Administrative Staff (Special) is hereby approved. The staff study referred to carried with it a draft of a recommended letter of authorization and instruction to [REDACTED] from Chief, Personnel Division Covert. It set forth the special allowances granted and the conditions and provisions for the administrative and financial support of the individual. It is being returned to the Special Contracting Officer for a few very minor revisions, and he will be instructed to prepare it with your concurrence for execution by the agent and the Chief, Personnel Division Covert.

2. The staff study will be referred to a working group set up as a joint effort of the Personnel Office and Administrative Staff (Special) to study and make recommendations for policy and procedural solution to the allowances problem. That group, of course, will turn to your office and to O&O for information, ideas, and specific problem areas in carrying out their study. Until such time as a mechanism can be established for routine administration, the Administrative Staff (Special) will hold itself in readiness to assist in meeting individual problem cases of the [REDACTED] type.
